NIGHT TIME FULL CLOSURES A19 FULFORD FROM MONDAY 23rd JULY FOR 4 NIGHTS

Commencing Monday 23rd July there will be a series of night time closures to the A19. This will completely close both northbound and southbound carriageways at the new junction location in Fulford. The full A19 closures are required in order to carry out the final surfacing layer and install road markings to the A19 junction and are made in full agreement with CYC.

The works are expected to take 4 nights. The closures will be in operation from 9pm until 6am the following morning.

Fordlands Road will remain open, but with access to Fordlands Road from the north only.

Access through the work for pedestrians will be maintained at all times throughout the road closure period along the existing eastern footpath..

Cyclists should dismount and walk their bicycle along the eastern footpath.

DIVERSION ROUTE

The diversion route will be via the A64 and A1097

Signposts will be erected along the route to guide you.
